“ What a privilege it was to have known Ms. Mattie. She had a wonderful smile and an awesome attitude toward life. She took us in and loved us when we visited, just like she'd known us forever. She liked to reminisce about when they lived in Texas, she understood wind and dust. Condolences to her whole family, whom she loved very much, and we know she will be missed by all who loved her. Rick feels so privileged to be an honorary pallbearer. Rick and Elaine McDowell Miami, TX.

“ Mammy was a woman whose price was above rubies. She lived her faith every day in her attitude and made the best of every situation. She took in friends and family and cared for them. She talked about her children and grandchildren with pride and love. Mammy was the best of friends; there in the good times and bad. She didn't complain and wasn't judgmental but quietly helped where she could and prayed for lost souls. One of my favorite memories was staying on Hilton Head making Ida Mae's shrimp creole with friends. We had spent the day watching the boats and riding the backroads. I can see her sitting on the patio at Vogel reading a book and watching the people or sitting on the couch with a cat in her lap and Charlie at her side. We talked for hours about the old days. Her mind never grew old. She understood and enjoyed people. I asked her once what she missed most about being young - she said she missed men turning around to watch her walk down the street. She was always a good looking woman. She loved cooking pork chops for Doody and the children bringing her a plate when they cooked something special. Mammy didn't need fancy- just family, friends and good food. She was the mother of my heart and I will miss her.
