“ Two of my favorite memories about Maurine were her loving serving heart and sense of humor. She taught a bible class every Tuesday for many years to the seniors living at the Peabody Apartments in Augusta, Georgia. She brought many to Christ through her teachings.

Being the funny person she was, Maurine dressed up as a cow for a skit at the Ladies Retreat one year. It was a memorable experience. Later she told me that she udderly loved cows! She will be missed here on earth but her Christian service will never be forgotten,
