“ I learned a lot in Mr. Goldman's class, from wood working to drafting to everyday life lessons, his name still comes up from time to time in conversation between me and my friends

“ Coach Goodman as I knew him was a good man. He brought us laughter with some of his words and actions, but I'll remember him most for inviting me to give cross country a try going into my junior year at Lakeside High School. Later, I had the opportunity to coach cross country and track alongside my former coach for two years. He is the reason I do what I do today. His influence was subtle at that initial invitation, but his impact was and is great. Coach Goodman taught me much of what I knew starting out as a head coach 12 years ago, and I still tell stories about Coach and the lessons he taught me in running and in life. He impacted hundreds, if not thousands, of students through the classroom and athletics and his impact continues through me. Thanks Coach!
