“ Maxine's niece, who lives on always in my heart, Kimberly Owsley, adored her "Aunt Maxine". Kim has been gone since 1986, but, I easily recall how Kim spoke admirably about her. She particularly noted Maxine's gentle ways, joyful countenance, and generosity. She marveled at Maxine's talent as a seamstress and had many wonderful stories about family visits with the Youngs. I smile recalling. I can still clearly hear any of Kim's many Maxine stories. They'd begin in an excited Kentucky influenced dialect & phrasing, "We was up at Aunt Maxine and Uncle Everett's and guess what?" I pray that Our Lord holds Maxine close in heaven. May His peace and love shine upon her. I give thanks for knowing Maxine and will continually attempt to live by her examples of mindfulness, love and faith.

“ Shirley I am so sorry to hear about your mom! There will be a day (which I believe will be soon) and you will see your sweet momma and never be separated again! The pain is great right now but Shirley, just lean on the comfort of the Holy Spirit to help you through this and on your loving husband who is walking these steps with you! Remember how blessed you were to have Maxine for your mom and cherish all the memories! I'll be praying for you 🙏❤️

“ Such an incredible woman. Her smile would brighten even the darkest days. Maxine was such a source of comfort and peace for me during and in the aftermath of Bubba's illness. I will always remember fondly our Sunday morning talks that guided me through that difficult time. God bless you all and know I am praying and thinking of you all as this journey of adjustment begins. Merry Christmas to you all and know there are others, like me, facing a different kind of Christmas this year right along side of your family. All my love, Andrea Jentry.
