“ I only had the chance to know Ms Turner for a short time but she left a lasting impression on me. Her strength and independence was truly inspiring. One of the last nights I was staying with her she was trying to get out of bed by herself and I was pleading with her to relax and she looked at me and said I love you. This moment will stay with me forever. It breaks my heart that she is gone, but I am so grateful I got to spend some of her last days on earth with her.

“ Even though I had the privilege of meeting Mrs. Turner only near the end of her life, I am incredibly grateful for that time.

From the very first moment, her sharp wit and no-nonsense spirit were unmistakable. She was straightforward, no nonsense, and she liked things the way she liked them, and that was simply how things was going to be.

However, beneath that strong, sassy, stubbornness, lay a deeply kind and generous heart.

I am thankful that I was able to witness the warmth behind her tough humor and to share even a small part of the life she had built with the people she cared about so much.

She will be missed, but her legacy will certainly endure.
