“ I didn't know Melinda very well, but I knew her well enough for her passing to hurt my heart. I'm a customer at Dollar Tree and I believe our first conversation began with her saying " you can't ever make it out the store before you start eating the ice cream can you?" Lolol! She was right!... and that was the beginning of our DT friendship. I could tell had there been a little more time, that our in store friendship would have progressed. She was funny and down to earth- my kind of person. Im very sorry for her family, especially her son. Ya'll have been added to my nightly prayers. Im going to miss seeing and talking with her.

Love

“ Melinda and I were great friends in high school. I've kept up with her here and there over the years. Everytime I would go in Dollar Tree we would talk about old times, and how our lives have changed. She was sooo proud of her son Kyle and talked about how good he was. I will forever miss Melinda. I loved listening to her and her mom talk! Her mom was German and had an accent, while Melinda's voice was low it got much higher when they were having mother daughter discussions about "where you going, what ya doing, who ya with????? Hahaha!! We had some good times and I'll never forget Melinda! ”
