

Melissa Day

May 27, 1975 - April 9, 2023

Aiken, SC – A Celebration of Life Visitation for Missy Day, 47, who entered into rest April 9, 2023, will be held Friday evening, April 14th, at Posey Funeral Directors from 6 until 8 o'clock.

Missy was born May 27, 1975, in Augusta, GA. She was raised in Norwich, CT, having made Aiken, SC her home for the past 10 years. Missy was currently employed as manager of operations for a number of Burger King franchises. Her career with Burger King began 20 years ago as a crew member and with her strong work ethic, she was able to achieve many career advancements with the Burger King corporation. She not only enjoyed food service, she loved hiking, cooking, baking and canning for her family and friends.

Surviving family members left to cherish her memory include her parents, Michael and Rose Day; two sons, Nathaniel Day and Christian Bitar; three siblings, Colene (Michael) Maynard, Theresa Lynn (Jose) Stanley, and Howard Vinton Riske III; two grandchildren, Morrison Lee Day and Winry Day; a niece Tayana L. Stanley; and a number of aunts, uncles, cousins, and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Harold Dwight Day and Shirley Jean Day; her maternal grandparents, Edwin Ashby McGaw and Sarah Frances McGaw; two aunts, Susan Little and Sandra Furman.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, w

“ Missy, you were the closest thing I had to a sister. When I was 13 years old, you were there for me when I had no one. You encouraged and cheered for me as I clawed my way to the wonderful life I have now. Thank you for being an amazing human. You were the most generous and kind person I have ever known..and probably the best spontaneous cook ever! I already miss you terribly.
