“ Mike was one of my best friends. We saw each other through a lot of tough times and celebrated many good times. Mike was one of the most down to earth, honest and loving people I have ever had the good fortune to meet.

I miss him. Peace to you Mike.

“ I played in several bands with Michael when we were in our teens. He was very talented, even as a young man. His family lived down the street from me so we were friends as well. I have not seen Michael for many years but will always remember him for his talent and his personality. We laughed a lot and played a lot of music together. Grateful he was my friend.
