“ I just saw this and all these years later, I am so sorry. I used to live in North Augusta and Mike and I were friends back then. It was during the "Dessert Storm" era and things were chaotic. He was such a wonderful friend to me. The song "Unchained Melody" was popular because of the military crisis. Even to this day, I never hear that song that I don't think of him. My mother died on his Mother's birthday and I use to tease him about that. She died many years before I met Mike. Mike was such a good man and I am so glad to see that he found love again and was happy. I still cannot believe that he is gone. RIP my friend. God Bless You!

“ Hello Christine (Krystal),

*Gerlinde informed me on Saturday of the terrible news concerning Michel's death. I found the obituary on the Augusta Chronicle website, which took me to this guestbook.
