Michelle, Michelle, Michelle, I am sending this to offer my condolence. You, your sister Janice and parents helped me when I was 16. I was scared and confused then. All of you stood by me and helped get my stereo back so I could go to Chicago and be with my mother. I am a little late to tell again thankful I am very privelaged to cross your paths. Ty Janice for being there for me. I wish the best and my prayers always for you and extended family. Tina Vaughn

“ May the family find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) Take care,###imported-begin###valerie thompson###imported-end##

“ Michelle was such a sweetheart to work with. Always willing to help in what ever way possible to solve a problem. She helped me to learn & understand tons both when she came to Ohio & afterwards. She cared very much about everyone around her. I enjoyed hearing about the kids and what they were currently up to at the moment. She was very proud of them. I will miss her very much.###imported-begin###Lisa Vondenhuevel###imported-end##

“ I will always cherish the days we spent together growing up in Harrisburg. Although we spent the past 18+ years with no contact; it seemed so easy for us to pick things right back up just a few weeks ago when I recieved your request to be you "friend". I will cherish all of the years we all spent together in school, during the long hot summers, and let's not forget the one time I broke down on a cold winter night on Starnes sreet in my old 280z and you helped me push the car down Fenwick to help get it jump started. You always had my back. I will miss you girl. RIP!!!!##imported-begin##Britt Smith##imported-end##

“ Brenda/Janice, I am so sorry and wish I could have been there with you. I had been out of town and didn't get back here in time to visit. Please know that I am here if you need anything and I love you both as I did Michelle. Please be sure and tell her children how special I thought their mother was. She helped me so much and I'll always be grateful for your family.
