“ Sue, Jeff and Danny, my deepest sympathies on your loss of Mike. We started work on the canal the same day, rode with the driver to Pedro Miguel together and spent the next three years not far from each other, living, at work or play. I remember the card games, softball, the jaunts to the jardins to drink beer and play pinball, the "sick-out" before the treaty and many memorable experiences until I left in '77. My last night in the CZ was at Mike and Sue's place in Gamboa right after Danny was born. Mike and I stayed in contact until the end. There aren't too many people in one's life that stay your friend for 32 years after you've last seen them but Mike was one of them. Of all the persons I have met in my 62 years, I'm glad Mike and I crossed paths those many years ago. Rest in Peace, mi amigo. Denny###imported-begin###Dale ###imported-end##

“ Aunt Sue, Jeff, and Danny... I have started typing my message condolences at least a dozen times... every time I am at a loss for words. "Uncle Mike" put a definite impression on my life. He taught us kids values, importance, and that many things in life are not free ... "gotta earn your keep"... at the farm in the younger days. He was always a bright spot in my life. Although we can find comfort in the fact he has gone to a better place, we are still left with the loss of a great man. Cherish the many great memories... I know I will. Love to all...
