“ Edna, Wanda, Pat, Christy & Terri,

Bev and I just heard about your mom. We are so very sorry for your loss. We remember her with great fondness. She was always so good to us and treated us like we were one of hers. Letting us hang out on Friday and Saturday nights playing cards. We probably spent more time at your folk's house than at our own. Please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

Much love,

Pam and Bev##imported-begin##Pam and Bev##imported-end##

“ Terri, May God Comfort and Bless you and your Family in this your hour of need. Words and deeds will never fill the void in your heart that you are feeling. However, it is my prayer that you always remember your Mother's love, the sweet memories, wisdom she has given you, and while weeping may endure for a night, joy comes in the morning. “ Terri,

I am so sorry for your loss. There are never the right words at a time like this. Even if I can't be there with you, know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

“ Terri & family:

I am so sorry to hear the news about your Mom. Having lost my Mom & sister on Thanksgiving many years ago, and recently losing my husband John, I understand that grief is very personal.

My thoughts are with all of you.

“ Terri and Alex,

May the peace that passes all understanding keep and guard your hearts and minds during this time. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord." We rejoice that your mother is walking those streets of gold and enjoying fellowship with Jesus now. May you be comforted and encouraged by the very Spirit of God and through His Word.

Our love to you and your family,
