“ Ms Miriam oh how classy and the epitome of a true southern lady. She and your Dad have been so remembered fondly over the years since she went to move to be closer to you. Ms Miriam came to my Mom’s Beauty Salon. Oh how many times we went in Leder-Potter. I think we can say there wasn’t a better little town for us all to grow up in as Loris. I will be remembering you and the family in prayer.

“ Thinking of you, Johnny. Your pretty mother was a fine lady and was always so cheerful. She was a great citizen and neighbor. I know you must miss Linda too. I loved going to your grandmother’s at the beach for sleepovers on Linda’s birthday. Mrs. Potter had as much fun as we did.
