“ lynn, andrea, marion and family, my deepest sorrow over the passing of your mom. as you all know i worked with your mom for yrs at coordinated apparel. she was always a very friendly and likeable person. she loved her family dearly and was always very loyal to each one. i went by to see her several months ago while she was at university hospital and she never knew that montine i were her the room. she was asleep and her breathing was very labored and we did want to wake her from her rest. please know that our thoughts and prayers r with all of you at this time. love, karen copeland kight
