SO

My Loving mother you continue to give me and our family your strength, love and comfort. You always put your family first. You are the strongest women I will ever know. You were truly one of a kind. I am so blessed you were such a wonderful part of my life you always gave me your great gifts of love, joy, protection, encouragement and understanding. It was always so easy to talk to you. I have so many great memories of you that I will continue to share. Everyone who ever met you instantly saw your genuine heart, so caring and compassionate to all you loved. The true love you gave so easily and unconditionally to all your family is a testimony to your great character and powerful spirit. Your beautiful light will live on and continue to shine down on us and give us strength, peace and comfort always. I will rejoice and be at peace knowing you have been welcomed with open arms and you are walking around heaven all day with our Father and Savior God who is almighty and merciful you will no longer struggle with pain or suffering. I am so blessed and grateful and Praise God for giving me the greatest mother's love I will ever know. I will miss you being by my side until I see you again someday my beautiful loving mother be at peace.

*Your loving daughter,

“ “If Tomorrow Starts Without Me”

by David Romano (1993)

*“If tomorrow starts without me, and I’m not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn’t cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn’t get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you
And each time that you think of me, I know you’ll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
He said my place was ready, in heaven far above
And that I’d have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned and walked away a tear fell from my eye.
For all my life I’d always thought, I didn’t want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do.
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.”*

“ Poem Feel no guilt in laughter.

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care.

Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.

She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,

The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you. A word someone may say

Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,

That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here,

And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart

And she will live forever locked safely within your heart.

Stacey O.Boots  Love you Mama - December 19, 2020 at 10:07 PM

“ By Temple Bailey A Mother's Journey

The young mother set her foot on the path of life. “Is this the long way?” she asked.

And the guide said: “Yes, and the way is hard. And you will be old before you reach the end of it. But the end will be better than the beginning.”

But the young mother was happy, and she would not believe that anything could be better than these years. So, she played with her children, and gathered flowers for them along the way, and bathed them in the clear streams; and the sun shone on them, and the young Mother cried, “Nothing will ever be lovelier than this.”

Then the night came, and the storm, and the path was dark, and the children shook with fear and cold, and the mother drew them close and covered them with her mantle, and the children said, “Mother, we are not afraid, for you are near, and no harm can come.”

And the morning came, and there was a hill ahead, and the children climbed and grew weary, and the mother was weary. But at all times she said to the children, “A little patience and we will be there.”

So, the children climbed, and when they reached the top they said, “Mother, we would not have done it without you.”

And the mother, when she lay down at night looked up at the stars and said, “This is a better day than the last, for my children have learned fortitude in the face of hardness. Yesterday I gave them courage. Today, I have given them strength.”

And the next day came strange clouds which darkened the earth, clouds of war and hate and evil, and the children groped and stumbled, and the mother said: “Look up. Lift your eyes to the light.” And the children looked and saw above the clouds an everlasting glory, and it guided them beyond the darkness. And that night the Mother said, "This is the best day of all, for I have shown my children God."

And the days went on, and the weeks and the months and the years, and the mother grew old and she was little and bent. But her children were tall and strong and walked with courage. And when the way was rough, they lifted her, for she was as light as a feather; and at last they came to a hill, and beyond they could see a shining road and golden gates flung wide. And mother said, "I have reached the end of my journey. And now I know the end is better than the beginning, for my children can walk alone, and their children after them."

And the children said, "You will always walk with us, Mother, even when you have gone through the gates." And they stood and watched her as she went on alone, and the gates closed after her. And they said: "We cannot see her but she is with us still. A mother like ours is more than a memory. She is a living presence."

“ *I close my eyes
Only for a moment, and the moment's gone
All my dreams
Pass before my eyes, a curiosity
Dust in the wind
All they are is dust in the wind
Same old song
Just a drop of water in an endless sea
All we do
Crumbles to the ground, though we refuse to see
Dust in the wind
All we are is dust in the wind
Oh
Now, don't hang on
Nothin' lasts forever but the earth and sky
It slips away
And all your money won't another minute buy
Dust in the wind
All we are is dust in the wind

If Tomorrow Starts Without Me...

*If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise you find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
He said my place was ready, in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned and walked away a tear fell from my eye.
For all my life I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do.
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
When I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow
I thought of you and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.
When I walked through heavens gates I felt so much at home.
God looked down and smiled at me from his great golden throne
He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you"
Today your life on earth has passed but here life starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last
And since each day is the same there's no longing for the past.
You have been so faithful so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.
You have been forgiven and now at last you're free.*

*So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me?
So when tomorrow starts with out me don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*

Austin O'Shields I Love you Nanny♥ - December 14, 2020 at 01:50 PM

“ One of these mornings won't be very long
You will look for me and i'll be gone
I'm going to a place where i'll have nothing, nothing to do
But just walk around, walk around heaven all day

When i get to heaven i'm gonna sing and shout
Nobody will be able to put me out
My mother will be waiting
And my father, too
And we'll just walk around, walk around heaven all day

Dear lord above don't you hear me praying
Walk right by my side
Hold my hand when my way gets a little cloudy
I need you, i need you to be my guide

Every day will be sunday, my lord
Sabbath will have no end
And we'll do nothing but sing and praise him
Then he'll say well done
And my race, my race will be won
And i'll walk around, walk around heaven all day.

Walk around heaven.

I'll just walk around heaven all day

“ If Tomorrow Starts Without Me”

by David Romano (1993)

*“If tomorrow starts without me, and I’m not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn’t cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn’t get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you
And each time that you think of me, I know you’ll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
He said my place was ready, in heaven far above
And that I’d have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned and walked away a tear fell from my eye.
For all my life I’d always thought, I didn’t want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do.
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.”*

*My precious sister Myrtle you were not only my sister but also my lifelong best friend and protector your whole entire life you took a role as my protector I was the shy timid young girl and you were , the younger mighty warrior on my defense words could not begin to express my deep love for you my dearest sister, the bond that we shared from childhood is truly what would be considered a GOD given gift , I will be waiting and longing for the day that we will again be together until then beautiful beautiful sister I will rejoice knowing that you are now in peace and in God's Kingdom love your sister

“ I love you nanny, I miss you so and I wish you could come to stay but I know you can't because you are in heaven and I'm happy for you today. So when I need you I'll call you from heaven and I know your spirit will be there to guide me on my way. I will miss your beautiful face and all your loving ways but I'll always cherish my memories of you all these sunny days. I know you will guide me through these hard times and help me carry on. I know I'm never alone and you will always be in my heart and your light will carry on just like from the start.

“ Myrtle welcomed me into her family in 1999, when I married her daughter Stacey. She always treated me like one of her own, and never missed the chance to call me George Peppard. We know she is now with God and at peace. She will always be loved. We will miss her dearly, though we know she will always be looking over us and guiding us to make the right decisions. We Love You Myrtle.

“ My Loving mother you continue to give me and our family your strength, love and comfort. You always put your family first. You are the strongest women I will ever know. You were truly one of a kind. I am so blessed you were such a wonderful part of my life you always gave me your great gifts of love, joy, protection, encouragement and understanding. It was always so easy to talk to you. I have so many great memories of you that I will continue to share. Everyone who ever met you instantly saw your genuine heart, so caring and compassionate to all you loved. The true love you gave so easily and unconditionally to all your family is a testimony to your great character and powerful spirit. Your beautiful light will live on and continue to shine down on us and give us strength, peace and comfort always. I will rejoice and be at peace knowing you have been welcomed with open arms and you are walking around heaven all day with our Father and Savior God who is almighty and merciful you will no longer struggle with pain or suffering. I am so blessed and grateful and Praise God for giving me the greatest mother's love I will ever know. I will miss you being by my side until I see you again someday my beautiful loving mother be at peace.

Your loving daughter,

“ I was so sorry to read that Myrtle had passed away. As her younger cousin, I always thought she was so pretty! Her blue eyes, blond hair and her flawless skin made her just beautiful! She was always so friendly, smiling and laughed easily! Much love to Yvonne , Debbie, Odell, Don and Sheila. I think of you often! May God bring you and all the family comfort and peace as you face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart.

“ My heart is broken my dear sister Myrtle. I didn't get to see you again,because destiny took me so far away from my family. It seems like only yesterday when you were dressing me and Don up for Fantastics,when we lived in Froghollow.I always remember you telling me the story of (Little Ilene) and what a great storyteller you were to us little ones.There was never a dull moment.You gave us so much love,because that was the kind of person you were,a humble Heart.of Gold Sister. You will forever be in my heart and I love you and I hope you know that. Part of me is gone with you,but I pray to see you again,I thank Our Sweet Jesus that he has taken away all of the suffering and that you are at peace. Rest in Peace My Dear Sister Your Sister Deborah
