“ There are too many memories through the years for me to post just one. In particular the things I loved most and will fondly remember about my Aunt Nell was her smile, her wit, and sense of humor. She could make me laugh like crazy, even when she would call me out. She was a beautiful woman that loved her family. I can close my eyes and still see her sitting on her front porch loving on my little ones, surrounded by her flowers. That's how I remember her. I know she is home smiling with Jesus and Uncle Charlie. I will miss her.

Love you, Aunt Nell
