“ Dear Frye Family,
I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, however, we are acquainted with the pain of losing a loved one in death. May you find comfort in God's loving invitation to "throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you" (1 Peter 5;7) and that he is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) A key to enduring your loss is knowing that the Bible teaches that "there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24;15), those sleeping in the graves will come forth and have the opportunity to live forever under peaceful conditions right here on earth. (John 5;28,29; Rev. 21;3,4) While grief at the loss of Nellie is great, joy at receiving Nellie in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) Please read and find peace in God's promises during this difficult time and the days to come.
Take care,##imported-begin##Valerie Thompson##imported-end##
