“ Newton was a blessing from early in my life along with Julia and his mother, Ruby, and father, N.F. and brother Donny. The love for this family made them more than friends. it made them extended family. I send my deepest sympathy to all the family along with my prayers for God's comforting presence and abundant peace to abound in your grief. "Then sings my soul.....How Great Thou Art!" With continued love to you all, Faye Holton Yarbrough

“ Newton was the "real deal." You will never meet a man with more integrity, Christian virtue, and business ethics. He loved the Lord God, family, and friends. Newton finished this earthly life well and is now present with the Lord and his precious, much beloved wife Julia. My wife and I are blessed to know the Manly family and pray God's abiding peace be with you all in the passing of Newton. Sincerely, Ira & Camilla Beaufort

“ He and Miss Julia were the most wonderful neighbors anyone could ever ask for. Tim and I loved them dearly. I will miss Newton as much as I miss Miss Julia. This has left a tremendous hole in our neighborhood; we were lucky and blessed to have had them in our lives. Newton was an example of a real Southern Gentleman and a true extension of Christ Love to everyone he met.

“ ONLY person we ever bought boats from and only shop who were allowed to touch our cars and trucks. Said before I would rather have had Newton's word rather than a dozen lawyers. From time to time I would just stop in the shop to talk to him. he will be missed.
