“ Every year Nina would remember me and my family for Christmas. No matter where we lived she always had us in her thoughts. Her gentleness and her sweet words will always be with me. My thoughts are of her and her children, grandchildren, great grand children and her great great grand daughter. Her love will continue as she taught you all how to love. Hugs and kisses to all who know and love her today.

Mamaw Nina, you may be gone, but you will NEVER be forgotten! I love you soooooo very much! I will see you soon! Until then, enjoy those streets of gold & love on Jesus, daddy, & bubby for me. (I chose a rose colored candle b/c she was like a beautiful rose to me.)

“ I am sorry for your loss. Although, I don't know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore. The former things will have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our love ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they are resurrected as per John 5:28,29. May these words give you a new hope.
