My short but special time meeting Nina was in the company of my good friend Josef, who loved Nina immensely, and our mutually good friend Edna who would visit her regularly. She was a living gem and I'm so thankful and glad I got to hear her eulogy to learn about her Godly life and how she affected so many people throughout her life. Even not knowing her that closely, I knew in my heart she was a Proverbs 31 saint of a Godly woman. Thankyou for posting this and may He continue to bless your family and all the friends she's acquired throughout her long and blessed life. To God be the Glory, Amen. In-joy remaining, Bro. Freddy Wieneke.

Thank you for the heartfelt service. The beautiful music and singing was a true gift, and the pastor presented like a real friend. I've heard nothing but good about you, Nina. I know that your son Jim is a wonderful man. I know how great your granddaughters and your great grandchildren are. All very kind people.

I'm very saddened for your family, that you had to go, but I'm certain it's an even better place, with the Lord right there with you!

My deepest sympathies for your whole family. God bless every single one of you!

Love Ken
