I just happened to notice the passing of this wonderful man today when I happen to be looking to see who's in here. LOL I know him from working at the mall and cleaning. I would see him and his wife when they would come to meet up with other walkers early in the morning. I got to know all of them like family and I have to say that he always made me smile or laugh every day when I would be talking to him. God certainly has a new angel in heaven.

“ Nothing but great memories of Norm. Great friend and "brother" to my Mom and Dad. Will remember always when they came to visit, usually on a Sunday afternoon ... or when the seven of us pulled into the car to visit Norman, Ruth and our cousins. Loving, beautiful memories. Never forgotten.

“ My mother lives at St John Towers. Every time I would see Mr. Evancic, he had a sweet smile on his face and a hello for me and my mother. He seem to never meet a stranger. May you Rest In Peace.

“ Norm and Ruth were some of the nicest people I have ever known. My memories come from way back at Branum's Sewing & Vacuum Store. Norm would always bring Ruth, come in with her carrying her "stuff", make sure she had all that she needed and of course come back to get her at the appointed time. And, both always had a smile on their faces. Such a good couple!
