“ My uncle Norman was such a kind soul! Proof positive when he and Aunt Eunice chose to adopt a child that needed them ❤️ Sandra & Margaret & Cindy were all Gifts from God just in different ways! I'm so glad I got to witness that love. He will be missed by all three of his daughters and all four of his grandchildren. Rest In Peace Uncle Norman ❤️

“ My uncle Norman would drive to Atlanta when my sister Kathy and I were young girls and take us back with him to Jackson to spend time with him and our Aunt Agnes who lived up the hill. We looked forward to that trip for months and he loved taking us to swim at Hollow Creek. We were there one summer when a snake came floating down and we climbed all over him trying to get out. He was so sweet and so much fun!
