Although I never met Mr. Oscar, his niece Deloris Williams Childs has shared fun memories of her uncle. Mr. Robinson has transitioned from the visible to the invisible. Keep on going in your on goingness. Peace be with you.

“ One of my many memories of Uncle Oscar (AKA Uncle Booter) is that he loved to fish and that he always had some on hand in his freezer. If I wanted fish and asked him for some he would always give me some fresh out of the freezer proudly with a big grin or cousin Randy would give them to me for him. Loved those fresh water fish.

“ My condolences to all of the Robinson family. I have such fond memories of teaching (and my husband coaching) several of you at Paul Knox. Many comments were made among my fellow teachers about what good parents the Robinson children must have. Cling to each other and to God in this time of sorrow.
