“ The first time I ever met Pam was when she had her business open. I came from NC to meet my boyfriend who had always spoke so high of her. Pam was a sweet person and a smart business woman. Compassion and a helping hand are what I think of, when I think of Pam. To her family, I hope the Lord gives you the comfort, strength, and all you need to get through this sad time. I know Pam had been really ill for a long time. Well, the suffering has ended and now she hurts no more. God bless her family. Sulyne Griffin Wilmington NC

“ Pam I will always have you in my heart. I remember when we were teenagers and I would always be over your house or you at my house. How we would cook hamburger's, at teen town when it was not opened. We cried together, laughed , got yelled at from my mom or your mom!! How much I slept over your house and we would be laughing so much!! You were my Maid of Honor at my wedding and we went to the dollar store to buy things for my wedding and Kim and I were putting frozen peas on you as , you and Kim were laughing like crazy but I was worried! ! There is so much more to say. I just thank God that you have been in my life . Yoi will always be my best friend! I love and miss you.!! I know you are in Heaven and no more pain. I will not ever forget you! I love you!

“ Pam was always good to me and I enjoyed being around her I grew up knowing her and her family. Going to Teen Town was so much fun. I'm thankful her parents gave us a safe place to go and enjoy ourselves. I worked for her and Nicky for several months and we always had a good time. I also enjoyed going to the lake and once to a Motorcycle race. She was always a joy and she will most certainly be missed. I pray God will comfort and be with your family during this hard time. Love you Pam, Bonnie (Joiner) West.

“ Pam and I became friends in the seventh grade. She took her first trip to the beach with my mom and me. I went with her and the parents to Alabama a couple of times. We always had fun and walked the edge of getting in a "little" trouble. But, we were still good kids. We rode horses, danced in her living room and at Teen Town, fussed, cried, laughed, double dated, worked together, and at last, we prayed together. I am thankful that I had her as a friend. My most sincere condolences for her family and many friends.

“ I will miss you my friend. We had some wonderful, fun times together and created some of the best memories, that I treasure. I am grateful to have had you be a part of my life as you walked on this earth. You were a wonderful person with an a bright smile, a contagious laugh and huge heart filled with love and care for family and friends. Go rest high upon that mountain, Pam, and we all look forward to the day when we will see you in Heaven. I will be praying for your Family.

When I think of Pam today, I remember "that laugh" of hers. I have known her since kindergarten and she was always laughing and encouraging others with her humor. She was everyone's friend. Heaven has received a true angel. Kimily Smith Tinch.
