“ My dear sweet friend, it is bittersweet but I know you are with Don now. I will cherish all the memories we made. Especially the trips to Florida. By car and by train, lol. We finally figured out it was better to travel by train so we could have more fun. I can still see your smile when we climbed on the train at 2am and the conductor telling you, he was keeping an eye out on you. We both agreed, what happened on the train, stayed on the train. The times we laughed so hard when we were all packed into the car with Sam, Ruby, JP and myself going to dinner and poor Sam was driving with his knees almost to his shoulders. I don't think we found much we didn't laugh about. Everywhere we went, you touched so many people. I stood in awe always of your sweet spirit and I don't ever recall not seeing a smile on your face and you were always willing to help anyone. In RS your hand seemed to be the first one to be raised before they even finished the sentence. It never mattered what it was. Your devotion to working in the Church in any capacity and working with Habitat always amazed me how you did it all. You were such an example to me then and will be always. My love and prayers to all of the family, now and especially the days ahead. Pat will be greatly missed and left such a legacy. Until we meet again my sweet friend, my love forever!

We can not thank Pat enough for being such a wonderful parent and example to her two sons. Our daughter Jeanette Muster Barfuss married Don Barfuss Jr. and we feel so blessed to have him as a son in law and loving husband to our precious daughter Jeanette. Don is a reflection of who Pat was and is.

We loved Pat's visits when she came to visit her son and family. She was fun to be around and always had a smile. Like what others have said, we don't recall ever hearing her say an unkind thing about anyone. Her faith in Jesus Christ and his church was strong and she never wavered. What an example of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. Her work of service will continue in the spirit world with her husband Don, until the day of their resurrection when she and Don will receive their new glorified resurrected bodies and Eternal Celestial Home. God bless you Pat.
