

Patricia Lynn Kneece

March 4, 1966 - January 4, 2023

Augusta, GA – Patricia Lynn Kneece entered into eternal rest January 4, 2023. The family plans to conduct a Celebration of Life Service at a later date.

Patricia was born in Allendale, South Carolina on March 4, 1966. She grew up on a farm with a love for animals, especially fish and cats. She loved gardening and was especially fond of arts & crafts. Patricia loved the Lord and was a member of the Church of Latter-Day Saints of Jesus Christ – the Aiken Ward. She was preceded in death by her father, Bobby Lang Brandt and brother, Richard Louis Brandt.

Patricia is survived by two daughters, Shelby Lynn Kneece (Blake Spires), Jordon L. Kneece; her mother, Vesta (Mark) Adams; a sister, Kim (Larry) Strong; a special niece, Sierra Strong; several nieces, nephews, cousins; and an expected grandchild on the way.

The family wishes to have Memorials made to organizations for Mental Health Awareness.

“ Patricia was a sweet woman. She was so good to my mama, taking her to the store and just hanging out with her. I don't know what I would have done without her when she use to help me at the Country Club. She was a dedicated and hard worker. I have so many fond memories of her and we did share some good times. Prayers for the family and may you find comfort in your memories.
