“ Paul was een hartelijk persoon. Tijdens onze vakantie bij hem in zijn huis was zijn eerste opmerking my home is your home. Dit was voor ons zeer bevrijdend. Wij voelden ons inderdaad direct thuis. Enorm genoten samen met hem vissen. Samen met hem naar American football. De voetballijnen samen krijten. Enorm genoten van het zwembad waarin wij menig uur hebben gezwommen en veel gelachen. Samen met hem en zijn vrouw Anneke in hun huis aan zee doorgebracht. Zijn opmerkingen waren vaak goed en zijn uiteenzetting over het spel American football was duidelijk hierdoor begrepen wij de spelregels beter. Samen uit eten samen naar Walmart samen naar de kermis samen carbidge wegbrengen met de truck. Wij missen hem en zijn bedroefd dat hij is overleden. Wij wensen Anneke zijn vrouw veel sterkte toe en condoleren de familie in Amerika namens de familie in Holland.

“ Words shoot us short in mind We remember Paul as a good person Who during our stay in his home always welcomed us with the words my home is your home. Often laughed how he reacted when seeing the television images of playing football. His passing had caused us a lot of grief. His wife Anneke we whis a lot of strengh. In our thoughts Paul Will always be with us.We condole the whole family on behalf of the family from the Netherlands

“ To Anna, Thea, Debbie, Scott, Mark, and all in the Curton family, I am sorry to hear of Paul's passing. He was a very interesting person to know and I looked up to him. I always enjoyed having lively conversations with him about many things. I especially enjoyed his stories from his time serving in the Air Force. I remember the sign he made for our street at the coast. It was fun passing that around. It was my pleasure to have known him. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Chris Fair
