“ Although Paul was my cousin by marriage, when I was growing up, he was just my cousin and one of my favorites. I remember so many good times staying with him and Laura Ann when I was a teenager. They were the family members who helped me the most at that time in my life, and I will be forever grateful. ❤️

“ A lifetime friendship has so many memories, too many to count, that each one supersedes the previous. Those memories will always be of Laura Ann and Paul as one in the Body of Christ. Your Christian Love embraced everyone. Though we came and went, the love in your heart kept us close. I know that you are sitting at the right hand of God continuing to do His work. May God Bless you, Laura Ann, Kenneth, Michael, and their families.
