“ Mom, Sorry it has taken me a while to write. I miss you so much. You were my strength when I needed you. You gave so much to me but asked for so little in return. You lived such a great life and although it was cut short, dad and I have said, "No more pills and no more pain." I am so thankful to say that you are my mom. They told us you wouldn't make it to dance at my wedding you did. They told us you wouldn't make it to see Makenzy be born, she is now 2 years old. Mom I miss you every second. I promised you that I would take care of dad and the family and I will, but I wasn't ready for this. It just isn't fair. I will always miss you so much. I LOVE YOU and I hope you understand that you gave so much to me and my family, especially Makenzy, and never asked for anything in return. You were loved by many and touched everyone you came in contact with. Dad is hanging in there. I promise I will do all that I can now that you are gone. We love you so much and miss you even more. Lauren reminds me everyday that it will get better. She loved you too. She always talked about how strong you were and how much you loved me and dad. She makes me feel at ease when I am down. She really knows how what to say to me, just like you did. You must have rubbed off on her. Be sweet in heaven and just remember that even though I didn't get to say goodbye, you know I was always there for you. Thanks for bringing me into this wonderful world and spending 32 greats years with me. You will always be missed and always just a prayer away. I MISS YOU AND LOVE YOU SO MUCH... REST IN PEACE and remember, NO MORE PILLS AND NO MORE PAIN, GOD BLESS, since I never got a chance to tell you, Goodnight, I love you, your baby boy!###imported-begin##Your Baby Boy Bryan##imported-end##

“ Remembering the lovely, youthful Pauline and all the fun times we had in Mildenhall, England, in the early 70's.

I am so glad we had the opportunity to become reacquainted over the last few years. Pauline was the same beautiful person both inside and out.

Our sincere condolences to Tom and the family.

In loving memory,
