“ I will always remember the talks we have had about u growing up with my parents. Then me growing up with Rene. I will always remember the times I stayed at ur house. Most of all watching & listening to u dance & singing to the song swingin by John Anderson. This is a memory that has been in my head for years. I will never forget. I loved u back then, I love u know & will love u forever. You are my momma Peggy.

“ To Thelma, Louis, Renee, and the rest of the family... We send our condolences. Peggy was a gem, and her grit and determination to attend Sam's visitation despite her own illness, was just an indication of what kind of heart she had. With loving respect... The Whatleys (Annie, David, Melinda, Mandy & Tori).
