Mrs. Hatch was a native of North Augusta, having made Augusta her home for the past 58 years. Peggy’s sweet disposition endeared her to anyone that she met. She was a member of multiple guilds and bridge groups. She enjoyed spending time with her friends traveling the country, walking the neighborhood, and playing bridge. Peggy loved to take in the marsh breeze from the dock at sunset. Peggy held most dearly time spent with family, especially her grandchildren, and she loved to cook and share recipes. If you are lucky enough you may even have her cherished chex mix recipe. The highlight each year was Christmas Eve when all of Peggy’s immediate and extended family were together.

“ To all of Peggy's family I offer my heartfelt condolences. I, too, have known her my entire life. Even as a young girl, Peggy exuded warmth and kindness. She was the truest of friends. May the angels lead her into Paradise.

“ There was no greater role model on how to be a wonderful neighbor and friend than Peggy. During the years that our family lived across the street from yours, I probably spent as much time with Peggy as I did in my own home. She was the kindest, most thoughtful person on Glenn Avenue. I will cherish the many times I spent in her kitchen learning how to cook. She and your family will be in my prayers.

My condolences to all the Hatch family on the loss of your precious Peggy. I remember her dry wit and the way she would say something funny and then grin and roll her eyes. Always so much fun to be with her! Praying that God gives you peace and consolation as you go through this difficult time. I send my love to all of you.

My cousin Peggy was like a sister to me. We were raised together when we were young when my mother was sick and died. I have two younger brothers but she was like a sister to me. Peggy, I miss you.

“ Peggy was one of the most caring and loving people I have ever known and I knew her my entire life. She had her mother's heart. She never welcomed you without her signature smile. She never said farewell without leaving you with all the warmth and generosity one could extend to another. She was the sunlight of our family, always able to find happiness and joy in whatever life provided. We love you and we will miss you. One candle may have gone out, but thousands have been lit in memory of you. May God hold you in His hands and keep you for all time.

Gerry and family, you are in our prayers.
