“ I am beyond heartbroken, I have worked side by side with Phil for a while now in the STR/Expeditors group at MOX. For anyone who is familiar with MOX lately, to say it's been stressful is an understatement. Phil was kind, understanding and always helpful. On the best of days he was right there beside us, laughing, joking and sharing his lunches, supplying us with candy and fortune cookies. On the worst of work days, he kept us supplied with all the Goody powders that we might need. There are no words to express how much he will be missed, how much he was respected and how much we thought of him. His absence is now and will always be felt by those of us who had the privilege of working with him. My condolences to the family on the loss of a wonderful person.

“ I want to share my memories of Phillip. I attended grammar school, middle school(we called it junior high) and High School. I have not seen him or Kim since we graduated. That is sad that when we get out of school we lost connection with our friends. I was in total shock when I seen the post of Phillips obituary. Kim and family my thoughts and prayers go out to each of you. May God be in your presence and give you comfort.

I am very sad to hear of Phil's passing. We worked many years together at SRS. Phil was a kind and helpful co worker and he loved his family and hometown. Phil always wanted to make things better for all those around him. Phil volunteered and helped with many fundraisers and did everything he could with a smile. Prayers for all of his family during this tough time. Sarita Berry

I was so devastated when I heard of Phillip's death. I was privileged to work with him when he was on the student council and later as president. He was concerned about everyone and wanted to do whatever he could to help them.
