“ Uncle Randy, There are not enough words to tell you how special you are to me and how much I love you. From the time I was a little girl and still today and always , you have had a special part of my heart. I think about all the memories I have of you and realize that everyone of them had laughter, love and joy in them. That's what you have been to me. I'm so sad because I'm going to miss you, but I know I will see you again and you will be smiling and happy. I love you more than I can ever say. Vicki

“Dad, I will miss you forever. Life simply just isn't going to be the same. When I found out you had cancer, I put my arms around you, and told you that your fight was my fight. Indeed, I was with you until the very end, but it just wasn't meant to be. God, in his infinite wisdom, has chosen to call you home, and who am I to argue with that? This last week together has been challenging, yet it remains one of the most cherished times in my life. I was blessed and fortunate to help you with this final journey, and for that I am thankful. I will move forward with life, but with regret and pain that is much deeper than I can express in words. It saddens me to know that we will never be able to take all those fishing trips that I planned with the boat, and it saddens me to think of a Christmas without you. Tonight, there is a big hole in our lives.

Randy, Randy, Randy....my special friend, my special buddy, and my special co-worker. What floods of memories come back to me at a sorrowful time such as this. You and Mandy have been such a part of my Augusta life and I'll never forget all the memories we made, from one apartment community to another. May your memory be eternal and your legacy last forever. Mandy, many prayers and much love to you and your family.
