“ What memories we treasure with Ray and you, Margarita and Kathy and Eric. We always think that friendships will last forever but God in his wisdom knows when it is time to go home. We will miss him and hold the three of you in our hearts. Wishing you the blessing of peace. All of you will be in our prayers.

“ I have known Ray Morris for about 40 years through our membership in Sertoma. Ray was a great person and with his wife Marguerita attended conventions all around the country. I will truly miss Ray and am so sorry to read of his passing. May Ray Rest in Peace. God Bless Marguerita and the entire Family.

“ So sorry to hear of the death of Ray Morris. We had missed his walking on the Greenway in his cowboy hat. Our sympathies go out to Marguerita, Eric and Katherine. We would have been at the service but just learned of it. Lyn and Ray Fleming “ Marguerita, I'm so sorry to hear of Ray's passing. I have many memories of fun times at Sertoma conventions with you and Ray. He had a knack for finding good places to eat for not a lot of money. May the Lord bless and keep you strong.
