“ To Linda and Family... Our sincere thoughts and Prayers at this time of deep sorrow. We always enjoyed our fellowship together at church and witnessing Ray's quick smile and gentle manner. It was fun working with him at Master's Table and getting to know him in other settings where we had chance to visit. Although Ray was not well, he carried on and put forth every effort to be his true self to the end. He will surely be missed, not only by his loving family, but his many friends and associates.
