“ *Andy and Danny, I am so sorry to hear about Rebecca. We are all shocked; Susan just talked with her at UH when your Daddy was there recently. There will always be a bond there with that "Nut Grove family". Even though we don't stay in touch, we have our memories all the way back to when Rebecca was born. Our thoughts and prayers are with you both and with all of the family. May God's promises strengthen you daily and may His presence give you peace and comfort. “ When God created Rebecca he sure did create the perfect friend, mother, wife, co-worker & human. I have loved Becca from our first night meeting where I spilled her entire frozen drink pitcher on the floor at Bump & Marys old trailer, I never knew that night that we would bond for the rest of her life! I thank God for every moment I had with Becca because she made my life interesting, I never knew I could keep up with 2 mind along with mine, but I sure do miss that now, Becca I love you & my heart is hurting so much, but I do know that you are not hurting at all & I guess that is what will make me life every day still with a smile!!!!!!##imported-begin##Joanne Cullum##imported-end##

“ I am the aunt of Joanne Cullum. I only met Rebecca a few times but she was a beautiful person and I know she is with God. Joanne was like a sister to her and she will be missed so very much. My sympathy to all of her family, may God keep all of you under His eternal wings during your loss and in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Teresa Gonzalez##imported-end##

“ wow i am so glad Gib and Glenda posted a letter. i never missed a summer at the lake with you guys. i guess i always figured i was part of the family. just as Rebecca never missed my family events. it was funny as the years went by that so many family members on both sides came to accept us as family. where there was one there was the other. oh, the card games we would play until late at night. then bec and i would go out to the pier and fish for catfish until we ran out of things to say. i remember the skunk that walked up to our door in that cabin. good gosh, we tried to be quiet but face to face was too much. gip and glenda, you will always be in my memories, growing up with rebecca###imported-begin###lisa Linnenkohl gi###imported-end##

“ We have been sharing memories of Rebecca these past few days. One of Gibson's earliest memories is of Rebecca having to wear a brace to correct the way her feet were turned. She was still a baby and Gib says that it broke their hearts to see this beautiful, blonde-headed little girl wearing this brace. Even then, Rebecca showed her determined spirit and Gibson says that she soon 'tore up' the floor, as she made her way around even with the brace attached to her shoes!!

She was just a few years old when he remembers her showing her adventurous spirit. One day Grandma was talking on the telephone and in walked little Rebecca. She had slipped out and had come on her own to see her grandma!!

Rebecca was the flower girl for our wedding - still the pretty little blonde-headed girl!! We enjoyed her growing up years - the love for horses that she had. We remember her cleaning stables in order to be around horses before she had a horse of her own! We remember summers at the lake and Rebecca water-skiing! She always had a real zest for life!

Most of all, we enjoyed watching her develop into the wonderful daughter, granddaughter, wife, and mother she was. She took on many responsibilities through the years and always adapted beautifully to the many changes. We will always be grateful to Rebecca and Anthony - as well as Andy and Angela and Danny and Kathy - for the wonderful way they cared for their parents during both their illnesses.

We pray that the sweetness of the memories that cause this time to be so painful will gradually become the comfort and the courage that Anthony, Rhody, and Kevin - and the rest of the family - need to continue to live their lives with the 'gusto' that Rebecca showed us through her life.

We love each of you and our hearts and our prayers are there with you today.
