“ Brenda & family, How our hearts hurt for you. You know we are praying for you. We're sorry we can't be there in person for you, but know we're there in thoughts and prayers. It's so good to know that Robbie isn't in any more pain but is in the Lord's arms, with Jesus smiling down on him. What a wonderful thought! The days ahead will be hard for you but prayers will hold you up, as you know the Lord will be right there by your side. We love you, Brenda, and know the Lord will hold you in His might Wings and comfort you in only the way He can.

“ Dear Ray & Brenda; I was saddened to get the bad news about Robbie. He was always so nice with a big smile when I saw him. My heart goes out to you during this time of loss. While I know mere words can never ease your pain it does sometimes help to know that other care and that Robbie was held in high esteem by so many. “ Brenda and family,
Robbie Lee and you were always such fun. We enjoyed having Robbie with us in Lyons when he was working at Plant Hatch. Boy, how long ago was that! You were so gracious when we visited you. Carlton considered Robbie one of his best friends. Our thoughts are with you. If you ever come south to Sylvania, please come by to see us.

Love to all of you.##imported-begin##Carlton and Linda Robbins##imported-end##

“ Brenda and family. I will miss Robbie. He always had a smile and word of encouragement. I never heard him complain, just always ask what he could do to help others. I know he and Kerry are in Heaven together, probably comparing notes and watching out for all of us.##imported-begin##Trudy DePiano##imported-end##
