“ Dear Doris, Amy, Todd, Brian and Megan,

How sad I was to hear of Bob's situation only the day before his passing. My heart was broken for the family to hear the news. I recall the best of memories and great conversations around the table and in the basement garage. We talked of fuel pumps, yard maintenance, Saabs and the merits of European cars in general, his beloved degreaser Simple Green, and more importantly about life in general. I recall him being physically strong, yet kind, enduringly patient, and a loving husband and father. What a great man he was. I know you will miss him as will many others. You are in our thoughts and prayers in this time and in the season ahead.

“ Dear Doris, Amy, Brian, and families:

We are so deeply saddened by Bob's death. We have such fond memories of him and all of your family from our days of living just down the street. Your family was a big part of our lives at that time. Amy was our favorite babysitter and practically lived at our house for a while. The boys would jump on the trampoline in your backyard while we watched and talked. Bob would tell us about his garden. He would tell us about lots of stuff....he knew a lot about everything!! One of my fondest memories of Bob was the afternoon he called to tell us to come up and see the baby bunny he had caught. The boys were delighted to see such a tiny, perfect bunny. We watched as he let it go under a tree in your backyard. He was such a gentle, sweet man.

We will miss him very much. Please know that we are thinking of you all.

With lots of love,

The passing of Bob saddens me. Bob and I were boyhood friends, and I will never forget the influence he had on me in HS and in our college days. I wish we could have seen each other more often after we both left North Augusta. I was proud to say that he was my best friend.

Sharon and I will certainly be praying for you and your family as you go through this time.

It is comforting to know that as Christians we know that we will all be together again in heaven.
