“ I remember as a kid going down with my mother to visit you all. I mad a really dumb move and climbed into the cow pasture. I wanted to pet a cow 🐮. Apparently there was a bull in there and Uncle Bobby and your grandfather had to rescue me! Hey, city kids can do some stupid things. 🤔👍

I also remember your grandfather had a beautiful black Tennessee Walker. I believe that was the beginning of my lifelong love of horses. I did another stupid city girl thing and climbed on the fence and got on him! Such a memory and your grandfather didn't even get mad at me. A wonderful man! 🥰

“ I am sorry for your loss. Although, I don't know your family personally. I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21;3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore. The former things will have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our love ones in death and we will be able to see them again once the resurrected as per John 5: 28-29. May these words give you a new hope.
