“ No words can express my pain . You were my hero and my superman. I remember all the silly card tricks you used to do that just hade amazed when I was a child. And the day I went with grandma and grandpa to Paris island when you were in basic training. I had the greatest time. I love you. You were more like a brother than an uncle. I know you are looking down. And still watching over me
Just like you did then. Rest in peace.

I am praying for the family's pain to ease, and I promise you, like I did my mom, I will help anyone I can anyway that I can.

“ As I sit here searching for the words to express my pain, I find myself smiling at memories of you. You always made me laugh. You had a way of making me feel important, safe and loved. If I had to pic a favorite memory I don't think I could choose just one. I do have a favorite week though, that would be our Ohio trip. I really enjoyed being there with you just relaxing. Laughing with you guys and having a great time. Thank you for every thing you brought toy life. You taught me many life lessons that I value and believe make me a better person. I love you Uncle and will miss you very much. Please hug the family for me. Tell grandma and pawpaw How much I love and miss them. Oh and pinch Terry really hard, then tell him that's for leaving us way to soon. You will be missed uncle.....until we meet again!

“ Uncle Robert was always making me laugh. I didn't get to see him as much as I wish I had, but whenever he was around, I could rest assured that I would be very entertained. He was so happy when I told him I was going to USC, and every time I see a Gamecock on somebody's shirt, car, or on campus, I'm going to think of him. ”

“ *Kim and Zack and family,
I was blessed to work with Bob(little Johnny) for the last10 months.
During this time an acquaintance turned into a friend that I will always remember with a SMILE ! My heart hurts for you all and I find comfort in knowing he is at rest and I'm quite sure he's got the Angels laughing! He helped make my time away from my family bearable with his quirky sense of humor and for this I will always be grateful. I pray for your comfort and know that each of you were the bright parts of his life . He spoke of you all often and loved each of you. You are all in my thoughts and prays. Rest in Peace my dear friend , until we meet again.*
