“ We had the honor to call Bob friend. From the first time we met him and Jean, we counted them as good friends. He was humble, kind, and very faith-filled. His love for God and country was unmatched and he was an example to all who met him. He will be missed, but he deserves the rest and reward for a life well lived. God bless you Bob.

“ Mr. Thomas was a fine and kind man whom I had the good fortune to meet through his son and daughter-in-law. He welcomed my wife and me into his home and was always extremely kind, warm, funny, and welcoming. I admired him and his lovely wife. I know his family will miss him terribly. It is an honor to have met him. I wish him Godspeed.
