“ Ron was so very kind & has a wonderful wife who I consider a mentor. I can't tell you what a difference you both made in my life as I came to Christ almost 10 years ago. Ron had the brightest smile that just made you feel welcome wherever you were. I know he is smiling & enjoying God's company but I send my prayers to his sweet precious wife while she goes through this storm. Many prayers & hugs!!

“ I will always remember you for being such a kind man. Thank you for all you have done for Heights Church, and for all the lives you touched teaching. You were truly one of the "Mighty Men" at Heights. There isn't a life you had not touched. I imagine our Lord is saying "Well done my faithful servant." We are praying for Vivian, Mark, Sarah and all your family.
