“ To my dear, sweet, beautiful son. I am so very proud of the person you grew up to be. I'm proud you lived your life to the fullest and followed your passions. I guess you knew how important that was since your father died at such a young age.
My heart is broken at the thought of never seeing the twinkle in your eyes or your mischevious smile. I will forever carry you in my heart for you will always be a part of me.
Thank you to all the people who sent their thoughts, prayers, and love...it filled our hearts with peace during this terrible time in our lives.

“ To Ms. Rearden, Rachel and Matthew, Christie, Mr. Oliphant and all of Rory's Family and Friends, I express my deepest sympathy during the very sad time for all of us. We all ask "Why?" when something like this happens. Why Rory? Why this way? Why now? Why? Because this was God's will. We may never truly understand why God took Rory but we have to believe that He has a purpose for Rory. Rory was a strong person. Perhaps God needed his strength to help prepare a place for all of us when we are called to the Promise Land. I remember sitting next to Rory at a restaurant last year in Valdosta after a day of racing at Jennings GP. The conversation, company and dinner was great. I enjoyed that time very much. What a cool guy he was. We all had fun. I missed an opportunity to speak to him on Sunday morning at Roebling and I am even more sad now because I didn't. We will all get to speak to him and see him again someday, but I know he hears all of our words and feels our sadness now, even though he is in such a Wonderful Place. We will miss you Rory. “ To the Partin Family, Christie and Friends:

I was a co-worker of Rory when he worked for Home Depot. I quickly grew to admire him for being a truly amazing young man with a genuine good heart and spirit. He was so full of life. Being twice Rory's age, we obviously didn't hang-out but if we had been closer in age I am sure we would have. He was the kind of man I would have been proud to call "friend".

I was struck with sadness and grief at the news of his passing. I have no eloquent words to ease the pain of loss of such a fine young man. I only pray you all find comfort in knowing that he touched many lives and his memory will forever live in their hearts.

May God bless you all and continue to see you through this difficult time.

“ Rory,
There are people that God puts in our path of life. Some people breeze through and some people stay but there are very few that impact our lives. You were one of those in mine .. from the very first time I met you there was no doubt in my mind that you were an "amazing" guy. Your smile brighten the room, in fact, I can never remember you without a smile. I remember the last time we talked .. you came over to my shop to thank me for sending you business and you stood there and talked about business, we laughed and shared Travis stories then talked about life and I can still here you telling me that I have to live my life making myself happy ... "live it to the fullest ..I do!". Those words will forever stay in my heart Rory. That day when you left I took a second to thank God for putting you on my path of life as I have so many times in the past few days ! You were a truly genuine person with a love for life, your family, girlfriend and friends. People that met you didnt meet you as a stranger but as a friend because that was God's plan. You left us doing what you do best..."living life to the fullest!" Your memories are forever etched in the hearts on so many ... Rest in peace, my friend..until we meet again!##imported-begin##Belinda Thompson##imported-end##

“ There is nothing to say to ease the pain of a loved one you are going to miss. I have been there on more than one occasion. I do know that leaning on those that are here for you is the best thing you can do right now. It shows courage to reach out during a time of need. Remember Rory fondly and when you are ready don't ever stop telling good time stories about him, watching videos of him, looking at picture albums and just remembering the best in him. Even though he will not be here in the flesh I can see from reading the comments he has left a lasting impression on many lives so you can always keep his memory alive. Christie, I love you and I am truly sorry for your loss. To Rory's family and to Christie, I have prayed for God to comfort you and to carry you through this very difficult time. “Rory was unquestionably my best friend during that time that I lived in Augusta from 2002-2003. While I was settling in a new town with no familiar faces nearby, Rory took me out and introduced me to all of his friends, family, and his beautiful and loving girlfriend Christie. Quickly we became inseparable – best buds every weekend, hanging out whenever we got a chance. I admired Rory’s loyalty and work ethic, as well as his tremendous sense of family. I know that he loved his family and friends just as much as we all loved him.

Although Rory was taken from us way too early, I’m happy to think of #877 riding off in the heat of the moment, gripping his handle bars with the thrill of victory, enjoying what was undoubtedly his biggest passion.

I miss you Rory. I miss your laughter, your smile, your charisma. I miss you and will always treasure our friendship.##imported-begin##Andy Freeman##imported-end##

“ Rory,
I'm gonna miss riding with you buddy. I will definantely miss all our talks about your adventures with your races at the shop. I'm sorry I never got to see you win big or work hard at it. I'll always think about you and miss you. We'll love you always.
