“ Michael, John, Charles and Rebecca, I am so sorry to read of the loss of your mother. It is difficult to lose a loved one, especially a mother. Please accept my deepest condolences. Although this is a difficult time for your family, may your reliance on the God of all comfort and your many special memories help you through this time of sadness.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I worked with Rose at Georgia Railroad Bank and she was instructional in me getting a interview for the job. She was so sweet and I will always remember her. My daughter and one of her son's went to the same church nursery at the time a long time ago. My prayers are with you during this time. I lost my Mom recently and I know how hard this is for everyone. She was beautiful inside and out. Blessings.

“ I pray for the daughter of this beautiful woman because she is my friend and because many years ago she shared her mother with me. Rebecca, I pray that during these days of recent loss that not only will the Lord give you peace, but also give you comfort. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning light." I also pray for the sons and grandchildren of this woman who will be so very much missed. Mrs. Anderson did it all during a time when many women were not empowered with the skills to work professionally. Her poise, graceful presence and zest for living was truly inspiring and uplifting to us all! And that tiny woman knew how to drive those white Master's Cadillacs!!! God we thank you for such a precious gift in her!
