“ One day as I was leaving my Mom's apartment I heard someone calling me. It was Mr. Roy. He was sitting on his electric scooter. He had on a hat that covered his ears and head and some dark sunglasses. He looked like he was going fishing but he was down by the mail boxes. I yelled out my van window that he was a cutie pie. He got so tickled that I said that. He was the Santa of Augusta Spring Apts. He was always bringing fruit (peaches, watermelon) in season to his neighbors. He would visit and give rides to people without cars. I will miss his adorable smile and acts of kindness. We sure will miss him here on earth but will see him in heaven.
