“ Niki I loved Aunt Ruby so much.

She was so beautiful to me when we were little growing up on Pine Log Road.

She had a spirit that would make me smile and hope someday to be the same.

I remember once she and I talked just us, was around 10 yo but I remember what I asked her very well!

I asked if she was happy what caused that, she had to be happy because she was always smiling, and she said, Brenda I am blessed, I have so many people that love me, and she said I should know that God loves me, and never forget it, she hugged me and told me she loved me, how sweet was that.

I have not seem her but once at a family party years ago, I was going into the bathroom she was coming out, and she knew me but I did not know her she yelled Brenda so good to see you, we hugged, this was the last time, wish there had been more.

Niki I am sorry for your loss but I hope when I die that my children loved me as much as you loved her!###imported-begin##Brenda Baxley Robinson###imported-end##

“ Dearest Sister,

Man born of woman is of but a few days and full of trouble. The Bible makes that point pretty clear. The good news is... the "few days" part. Thank merciful God that we don't have to live in this terrible, sinful world hundreds of years like Adam and Eve after the fall. I think Jesus said Heaven and Earth shall pass away, but my words never will. Being a woman of faith, like I know you are, I am sure these words are a great comfort to you and me in times like these. Bless you for taking care of our beloved Mother all of this time until the Lord took her home. You were always the good child. If the situation was different I would've been there to help, but it wasn't. It's over now and I've seen this day coming from a long ways off, and I said goodbye to my Mother years ago. What a remarkable, vibrant woman she was back in her hay day, a real live wire, remember? And SO beautiful. I remember as a child walking hand in hand with her through Sears or JM Fields or somewhere else and all the men would flock around her, bending over backwards - doing anything to please. I thought my Mother was a Queen. On July 6, 2010 - in the twinkling of an eye, poof, she was transformed. Praise God and glory halleluhah for his promise to the faithful departed. And likewise, in an instant we all will be together, forever, in Paradise. For is a mans life is but of vapor, that appeareth for a while and then vanishes away. For we grieve not as those who have no hope. I really love the story of Jesus and his good friend Lazarus. It made Jesus cry to have to bring him back to life, to this terrible evil sinful world just to satisfy his faithless kin folks. The story of King David is another good one, when his son was dying and he prayed and fasted in sack cloth and ashes, for when the Lord took his son home, he arose and washed himself, put on clean clothes and had a feast. He told all of his puzzled friends "I can't bring him back to me, but now I can go home to him." I love my family, every one of them, and I am sorry that I can't be with them at this time of sadness and celebration, but this too shall pass, all to the Glory of God. We've got quite a few honorable ancestors waiting for us on the other side now. More there than here on Earth, I think. We would want to bring them back, but one day very soon, we'll go to be with them. Personally, for me, the sooner the better because this old world gets worse everyday. Stay in touch, I don't know if you lost my number or not but here's Gina's number, you can reach me on it most any time (843)409- 6282 or (843)420-5233.

“ My dearest Uncle Fred and to Aunt Ruby's children and grandchildren,

May we always honor the beautiful memories of our dear loved one. Ruby taught me patience, love and to enjoy an afternoon nap when I vacationed with them several times. Aunt Ruby had that special twinkle and joy in her telephone voice and loved me generously. I never understood her love of fish soup, but that didn't stop us from joking about it. I know we are saddened for our loss yet rejoice that she is with the Lord. I love you Uncle Fred and know I am praying for all of you. Linda###imported-begin##Linda Ashcraft LaRussa###imported-end##
