“ *Russell, My prayer was always for you and Nick to do just as you both planned and get the largest torch burner you could and blast your tumors into nothingness!! I so wanted you to be healed just as Nick was and your prayers for him mean more to me than I can ever express. As sick as you were you came to his healing service. But now I know you are healed and your body is perfect. You are with Jesus. What more can we ask for? Love and miss you, Sharon

There has always been and I suppose always will be things in life that are too painful to make sense; this is one. My heart is breaking as I say good-bye to someone once very close to me/my heart, like a brother I never had-certainly an old friend. May the peace that only God can give come to all of Russell's family, especially his children, that must go on without him. I am deeply sorry for your loss; I pray as time passs we will all be able to rejoice he is cancer-free now and walking on Holy ground/streets of gold and well taken care of until you see him again.

“ I first met Russell in 1987 and we worked together since that time. He always made me laugh and he was always a pleasure to be around. We've laughed together, rode bikes together, and cried together. He was without a doubt one of the best friends a guy could have. I'll miss him dearly and look forward to the day that I will see him again! Rest easy my brother! To Lee and family..may God comfort you and give you the strength to get thru this.
