and I close my eyes to visualize your face when you were here. The times we spent together are tucked safe inside my heart,
and as long as I have those memories
we will never be apart. Love always, Mama*

“ January 2, 2014
Dear Ryan,
God breathed in you the gift of life on July 31.
He gave to you a family
to share your 26 years on Earth.
You blessed us with countless joys,
although there were some tears.
He continued to watch over you,
as you soon became a man.
On January 2, though we did not understand,
God set in motion His sovereign plan.
Your work on Earth was finished,
He called you to His side.
You are now at peace forever,
Where love and joy abide.
Love always,
Mama

Dear Ryan,
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you did not go alone.
For part of me went with you,
That day God called you home.

Everyday in some small way
Memories of you come to stay.
Though absent, you are always near
Still missed, still loved and forever dear.
Love always,
Mama

Dear Ryan,
Countless, precious memories of you I hold dear in my heart,
I treasure each one even though we're apart.
God's ways may not always be easy to understand,
But I have to keep trusting in God's divine plan.
I am thankful God blessed me with 26 1/2 years to love you,
And I know His promise that I'll see you again is true.
I miss your hugs, your smile and the way you laughed,
And I have the comfort in knowing you're safe in Jesus' arms at last.
Someday soon this pain and hurt will pass.
Love always,
Mama

“ My heart aches everyday because I miss you so much. My life will never be the same without you. I miss your smile and the way you would make me laugh every day. No one will ever know me as well as you do. I cherish all the memories that I have of you and our times together. I still cant believe that you are not physically here with us. I know that you are in heaven and that you are looking down on us but I sure wish I could have one more time to hold you in my arms and kiss and tell you how much I love you and to scratch your back, give you butterfly kisses and make you smile. Petey, Daisy,Chloe,Bleu,Socks and Midnight miss you very much. Your family misses you so much and I am so blessed to have your family a part of my life to help me get through everyday I dont know what I would ever do without them. I love you so much and think about you every minute of every day and I know that one day we will be together again :)

“ Susan and Ronnie you brought the most precious man into this world. Ryan has filled my life in the past 9 years with joy and laughter. He was very much loved by friends and family and he loved his family very much. Pat and Debbie he loved the two of you very much. Ryan is the love of my life. Life will never be the same without him. I do know that with the strength of GOD he will get us all through this. Ryan is at peace now and in GOD's hands. I am blessed to have spent the time that I did with him on January 2, 2011 and that our last words to each other were that "we loved each other". Lets all remember the good things about Ryan and cherish those memories that we do have of him. For Ryan would want us to remember him as being the loving person that he was.

I also remember fondly when they were into country music and they dressed up like Brooks and Dunn with their guitars. “ Craven was always running around with good ole Greg Benjamin years ago before Greg passed. They always were causing some sort of trouble. :-)

However, I think that anyone who came in contact with Ryan knew he was a great guy and had a big heart. He will never be forgotten and NA won't be the same. I didn't know him well, but I want to extend my sympathy to the family. Praying for you all.

Caroline, thank you for remembering Greg also. You do not know how much we appreciate you mentioning Greg. We miss him terribly and life has not been the same. I never wanted any of Greg's friends or parents to feel the emptiness in their hearts as we do. Greg and Ryan were good buddies and they both had good hearts. I know these 2 angels will look over all of us. God bless you for remembering.

Susan, what a lovely picture of you and Ryan. As with most North Augustans, my heart is breaking for you all this week. With the help of Pat, your mom and family, and multitude of friends around you, you will survive this bleak, black time. I read something that you might like, which reinforces our faith and belief in life everafter. It goes like this ...
"When we are born we are crying and everyone around us in happy. When we die, everyone around us in crying and we are happy!" Be there tomorrow to pray with you all.
