“ We were neighbors of the Buists when I was little. I stepped on a bee in their yard one day and it stung my foot. Coach put me in a wheelbarrow and pushed me home. My condolences to Robert, Chris and John. Your dad was a special man who positively affected a lot of lives.

“ I didn't take chemistry or play any sports. Coach did talk to me on occasion. Usually telling me to quit clowning around and get to class. A wonderful man, teacher, coach, and father. RIP Coach.

“ My mother (Ada Stillwell) and I send the Buist family our deepest sympathy. Mr. Buist was a long-time neighbor, teacher, coach, colleague, and friend. His devotion to his Lord, his family, and his calling as an educator were strengths and guideposts of his life. He lived his faith and acted when many simply talked or waited. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ There are not words to express my sadness over the death of Coach Buist. Coach, they don't make 'em like you anymore. Not only did you give me knowledge I'll carry throughout my life, but you gave me wonderful memories of laughter and fun times in your class that will also be carried throughout my life. Thank you!

What a helluva "Coach" he was , and always will be. He may have never been Head Coach" at NASH , but he would have would have shown Morris a thing or two. Coach Buist commanded respect and received it, period. Not a better man , nor coach has ever passed through the doors at NASH. And a darned goo biology teacher at that!

Coach we're going to miss you every morning at the Waffle House doing your crossword puzzles. You were an inspiration to me, especially during this past year while my son was on the front line of battle in Afghanistan. I know God heard your prayers for my son when you prayed. You were concerned about him in his treatment in the wounded warrior program when he returned. I know that you are in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior.

“ NASH Class of 81 - he was my chemistry teacher and such a sweet man with a sharp sense of humor. He called me Yank and would have me read out loud to the class and then poke fun at how I pronounced certain words. I saw him last year while I was in town at Sunrise Breakfast - he had such a big presence and warm smile. Prayers and kind thoughts to his family. Michelle Long

“ Oh, I am so sorry. My blessings and prayers of peace to the family. Coach used to call me Bucketmouth Hewitt because of all the time he spent answering my questions on chemistry and even took the time to teach me football so I could use the the proper cheer for the football teams. I loved him dearly as a Teacher and he was one of the few who genuinely cared for his students. My deepest regards to the Family.

“ Our middle school did not have a football team, so Coach Buist let me come out and play for the high school. He was my coach for 5 years! A lot of memories and stories. As I get older, I believe the fog has finally lifted... Thanks to you! Rest in Peace Coach!

“ As people go through life, they are only so lucky if they can be touch by a single soul that makes a difference in one's life. Coach Buist was that soul for me. Growing up just up the street from the Buist family I knew them well. Going to high school I was fortunate to be able to be coached by Coach Buist and was part of the last of many undefeated JV teams. There will always be a special place in my heart for the greatest coach I have ever known!!!

“ Coach Buist was one of the "Rocks" upon which many of laid the foundation of our lives. A truly fine man, an outstanding "life" coach and teacher. He meant so much to all of us at North Augusta High School. I have many fond memories of the fun we had in his Chemistry class. He was not an overly ostentacious man, but quietly from just off-stage he kept life events on track for so many of us. He guided us through the critical formative years of our life, and helped us all to chose the correct path. My prayers go out to all his family, he will be remembered often and missed by all that knew him.

“ Coach Buist was responsible for getting me a football scholarship, as it was his idea to move me (a baseball player) to QB, when we needed one. "You have a chance to get a "ride" if you play QB, because of the exposure." "Brilliant!" I responded, imitating him, as "brilliant" was one of his sarcastic expressions he used when one of us would not do right. His dry wit and low key approach to any situation exuded a calm over all of us. I loved Coach Buist... a true gentleman: humble, committed and never took himself too seriously... a mentor.

“ Coach Buist was a great coach and teacher but a better man. I am so thankful that I had an opportunity to play for Coach Buist. There is seldom a day that goes by that I don't think of a funny or teachable moment from Coach Buist.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to Chris, John and Robert and their families. My brother and I had the pleasure to play for Coach Buist. I also later coached under him at Wardlaw. He was like a father to both of us. Unfortunately, I had not seen him in years but, when I heard the news it hit me like a ton of bricks. There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about him and all that he taught us. Without him I don't know where my life would be. RIP Coach Buist. I hope you know how much you meant to everyone.

“ My prayers go to Coach Buist's Family. He had a great influence on my life and I'll always cherish the memories of the many hours we spent on and off the football field, but especially the guidance he provided me on life's challenges and the encouragement to follow my dreams.

My thoughts and prayers go out to Coach's family....Coach Buist had so much impact on my life. The days spent with him at Wardlaw Academy will always be special to me. The football practices and games I coached with him bring great memories to me. I feel so blessed to have seen and spoke to Coach about 3 weeks ago. I was at fellow coach Dan Watson's funeral....It had been 20 years since I had seen Coach Buist. I thank God for that time we talked 3 weeks ago.! The one thing I will always remember and think of when speaking about Coach Buist is how he treated people and especially the young men he coached. I will miss you Coach! God bless you!
