“ Sam was my cousin on his fathers side of the family. Since we lived on opposite sides of the country we only saw each other twice growing up. We both attended Aurora College at the same time for a short while. I don't know if you remember me Pat, I am John Weed, Shirley Keepers Weed's son. Please contact me at jweedston@gmail.com. I was shocked to hear of Sam's death and send my best wished and prayers to you and you family.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Sam. Sam was truly one of a kind. I think he was one of the smartest people I have ever met. He could crunch numbers in his head like a computer,,,,It always amazed me. He was a true friend, and you don't get too many of them in life. He is in a better place now ,, Pat take care. We all grieve with you.

“ The memories I have of Sam Keepers go back a long way. Sam was one tough guy.You had a true friend in Sam if he was your friend. He was always there for you if you needed him. Just a great person who seemed to stay busy all the time. Sam was all man and would get after you on the football field. Before I got to know Sam we got into a fight and I was glad there was somebody there to break it up. I hated to see him the way he was in his later yrs of his life. He is ok now and healed with God. Rest in peace my friend.

“ I always enjoyed spending time with Sammy. He could just keep you laughing. I will never forget a spring high school football game when he was kicking off. He completely missed the ball. Nobody moved - too stunned maybe. Who knows? Sammy never missed a beat. He just ran in a circle and came back to kick it down the field. It was like a suspended moment in time. Forty years later just thinking about it makes me laugh. That was Sammy.
